Rep. Vruwink Appointed to Joint Finance Committee

MADISON – Rep. Amy Sue Vruwink (D-Milladore) announced today that she has been appointed to the legislature’s Joint Committee on Finance. The appointment was finalized by Assembly Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester).

“I am honored to be chosen to serve on the Joint Finance Committee,” Rep. Vruwink said. “I look forward to serving the residents of the 70th District and all the people of our state by focusing on how we can create jobs, grow the economy and strengthen Wisconsin families and the middle class.”

Given its responsibility for managing all the state’s fiscal issues including writing the state budget, the Joint Committee on Finance is considered to be the legislature’s most important committee. Rep. Vruwink is one of two Assembly Democrats on the committee, joining Rep. Cory Mason (D-Racine).

Rep. Vruwink has represented the 70th Assembly District since 2003. She currently serves as the ranking Democratic member on the Assembly Committee on Agriculture and is also a member of the Assembly Transportation and Veterans committees.

“I am confident that Rep. Vruwink will provide a strong and enduring voice on the Joint Finance Committee and represent the best interests of middle class families in the 70th District and entire state. Rep. Vruwink is one of the strongest voices – if not the strongest – in the Assembly on agriculture and rural issues and she will be a great addition to this committee,” Assembly Democratic Leader Peter Barca (D-Kenosha) said.
